SNAPCHAT'S NEW AI CHATBOT AND IT'S IMPACT ON YOUNG PEOPLE

Snapchat has introduced a new Artificial Intelligence (AI) chatbot called "My AI" designed to help users with various tasks through their messaging section in the Snapchat app.

While this new feature can be helpful, there are some potential risks to young people who use this feature. In this article, Childnet explores the latest AI chatbot on Snapchat and its potential impact on young people.

What do I need to know about ChatGPT?

ChatGPT is an artificial intelligence chatbot which can be found online. Similarly to a robotic customer service often found on the corner of a website or app, ChatGPT generates content and answers based on a user's question.

Childnet's guide for parents and carers discusses why it's important for parents and carers to talk with young people about how to use ChatGPT in an educational and safe way.

UNDERSTANDING AND RESPONDING TO ONLINE CHALLENGES

When a viral challenge is reported in the news or on social media, it can be difficult to establish the facts, risks, and what you need to do to protect the young people in your care.

iNEQE Safeguarding Group has published an article to explain what you need to know and how to respond to online challenges. The good news is that most online challenges will burn out and lose popularity!

'While these challenges often die out in a short space of time, it's vital that those with children and young people in their care understand what these challenges are, and how to respond accordingly.'

REPORT REMOVE

Report Remove has been designed to help young people under 18 in the UK to confidentially report sexual images and videos of themselves and remove them from the internet. The Report Remove tool can be used by any young person under 18 to report a nude image or video of themselves that has appeared online. The IWF (Internet Watch Foundation) will then review this content and work to have it removed if it breaks the law.
