1. Aims

This remote learning policy for staff aims to:

When providing remote learning, teachers must be available between 9:00-12:00 and 13:00-15:30.

If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure.

When providing remote learning, teachers are responsible for:

  - This work needs to be set in time for children to access it at 9:15 every day during the week.
- Providing feedback on work such as but not limited to:
  - Once a child completes a piece of work, a minimum of a comment giving relevant feedback is expected by the teacher that sets the work.
- Keeping in touch with children who aren't in school and their parents:
  - Tutor times should be arranged on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays via Microsoft Teams at a time that suits the tutor and the children. Tutor times should always be attended by two members of staff, typically the class teacher and at least one class Progress Engagement Guide.
  - Teachers would be expected to reply to parent's/children's comments/emails between 9:00-15:00 but not outside these hours.

- For any concerns shared by parents and pupils or for any safeguarding concerns, contact Caroline Belchem (Head Teacher/Designated Safeguarding Lead).
  - If a child is failing to complete work, then the class teacher/tutor will contact the child's parents/carers to assess the accessibility of the work and how to best engage the child. For instance, it might be more appropriate for the child to work on a long term project instead.
- Attending virtual meetings with staff, parents and pupils:
- During virtual meetings with staff, parents and children, teachers are expected to dress appropriately and avoid areas with background noise or inappropriate background.

2.2 Progress Engagement Guides

When assisting with remote learning, Progress Engagement Guides must be available between 9:00-3:30

If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure.

When providing remote learning, Progress Engagement Guides are responsible for:

- Mentoring sessions:
  - Arranging a convenient time each week for each Progress Engagement Guide's allocated children to talk.
  - Following the session, complete a mentoring sheet and save to Keywork on Behaviour Watch.
